

General Instructions for Submitting Papers

- Papers should be typed with automatic spacing. The paper to be used is A4 and should have 2 cm margins. The last page should contain the author's address and e-mail. Article submission should contain the original paper, one copy, and a diskette with the text. The author should maintain an identical copy (electronic and/or printed).
- Articles will be accepted only in English.
- The title should express the general idea of the article in a clear and precise manner. Immediately following the title, list the complete name(s) of the author(s), title(s) and precedence.
- Articles should be precise, not longer than 08 pages in size 12 Times New Roman font, including abstracts, illustrations, tables, bibliographical references, etc. In very special cases, articles will be accepted with a superior number of pages if the data presented is extremely important to the understanding of the topic in discussion.
- Graphic designs should be used only to clarify texts.
- When illustrations have already been published at another source, furnish the source and reproduction permission.
- The article's outline should maintain the following standard format for publication:
Title (Avoid long titles and unnecessary words: "Study about...", "Contribution to ...")
Authors (organize by level of research participation)
Abstract
Introduction
Material e Methods
Results
Discussion
Conclusions
Acknowledgments
Bibliographic references
- The maximum limit to color photographs is six per paper. Beyond this number is at the author's expense.
